2011 ABC Employer of the Year

Do you have a great employer? What better way to recognize them than a nomination for the 2010 ABC Employer of the Year Award! If your employer is conscientious and grateful, kind and considerate, and makes coming to work easy? If so, we want to hear about it! Nominating your employer gives you, as the nanny, the opportunity to thank your employers and recognize them among their peers.

The following questions are to be completed by the employee/nanny making the nomination. Nominees for ABC Employer of the Year cannot be self-nominated, must currently employ a full or part-time nanny in Colorado and must be present on March 5, 2011 to win (winner will receive free admission). Be certain the information is clear and concise. Please send a picture (digital photo) of you and your employers with the complete application--we can't wait to hear about them!

For consideration, all applications must be received no later than February 25, 2011.

ABC Employer of the Year will be announced at our Love and Logic Seminar on March 5th, 2011 at the Downtown Aquarium. Award presentation will be at 12:00 noon. Your employer must be present to win – winner will receive free admission.
